The regular meeting of the Delaware County Board of Supervisors was held Wednesday, February 21, 2007 at 1:00 P.M. in the Supervisors’ Room of the Senator Charles D. Cook County Office Building, 111 Main Street, Delhi, New York, Chairman James E. Eisel, Sr. presiding.

The Clerk called the roll and all Supervisors were present except Mr. Donnelly, Mr. Valente and Mr. Maddalone.

Chairman Eisel advised that Mr. Donnelly, Mr. Valente, and Mr. Maddalone are attending meetings in New York City.

Mr. Marshfield offered the invocation.

Mr. Smith led the Board in the Pledge of Allegiance to the Flag.

The minutes of the previous meeting were accepted as presented.

The Clerk reported all communications received have been referred to their respective committees for review.

Chairman Eisel thanked the highway and town crews throughout the county for all the time and effort put forth during the recent snowstorm to keep the roads safe for travel.

Chairman Eisel granted privilege of the floor to Mr. Bachler who introduced Executive Director of Soil and Water Conservation District (SWCD) Richard Weidenbach to discuss the funding coming from the United States Department of Agriculture Natural Resources Conservation Service (NRCS).

Mr. Weidenbach provided an update to last months presentation on the Emergency Watershed Protection Program (EWP). SWCD has assessed seventy one sites for a total project cost of $8.3 million dollars. These are all eligible sites meaning that approximately $6 million will be coming from the federal government and 25 percent of that figure, approximately $2 million dollars, still needs to be raised by local sponsors. He referenced his first of three handouts placed on each Supervisors desk entitled: EWP 2006 Township Damage Survey Report (DSR) Sites for Delaware County and pointed out that the town could estimate their 25 percent from the column entitled DSR Cost Estimate.

He referred to his second handout, a memo to Governor Elliot Spitzer, Senator John Bonacic, Assemblyman Clifford Crouch and Assemblyman Peter Lopez requesting their assistance in securing the local match. He encouraged the Supervisors to contact the people listed on the memo to let them know how important it is to the county to receive the additional funding to cover the 25 percent match. In 1996, a precedent was set when the State government provided an additional 12.5 percent, reducing the match to 12.5 percent. In his opinion, this flood was of a greater magnitude than that of 1996.

Chairman Eisel stated that Congresswoman Kirsten E. Gillibrand visited Delaware County in early February and this issue was discussed. She is aware of the desperate straights this county is in and indicated that she would immediately go to work to get the county the 25 percent match. In addition, she said that she would like to have the funding expand to include private property.

Mr. Bachler said that he is very impressed with how many sites are eligible but, the town of Meredith had requested four sites and none of them appear on the EWP 2006 Township DSR Sites for Delaware County.

In response to Mr. Bachler, Mr. Weidenbach suggested that he contact the SWCD for information as to why the sites failed and if he believes those sites should have been eligible begin an appeal process.

Mr. Weidenbach said that a new precedent has been set with this project. For the first time, private property farm lands have become eligible. Four farms participating with the Watershed Agricultural Council (WAC) and located in the NYC Watershed have been identified. Together, the lands are eligible for $450,000 worth of work and WAC has offered to pick up the 25 percent on these properties. He explained that WAC has a two step approval process, step one is approval through its executive committee and that is complete. The second step is to be approved through its entire council. If it is approved, SWCD will be asking the county to be the municipal sponsor.

In reply to Mr. Marshfield, Mr. Weidenbach confirmed that the 25 percent match could be used as in-kind services.

Mr. Marshfield questioned how NRCS would regulate the hourly labor rate. Commissioner of Public Works Wayne Reynolds responded stating that the State rate would be used for reimbursement purposes.

Mr. Weidenbach noted that towns could request a reimbursement of what was actually spent. He advised that the federal government is requiring that the towns do their own design work and are willing to pay 7.5 percent of whatever the project installation costs are.

In response to Mr. Hynes, Mr. Weidenbach referenced his third handout, a copy of a letter from District Conservationist Mike Clifford of NRCS, Walton USDA Service Center, stating that the February 28th submission date has been extended to March 14, 2007.

Chairman Eisel requested that Commissioner Reynolds send each of the town Supervisors a copy of the State rates.

Mr. Marshfield commented that the NRCS presentation led him to believe that funding would be available for private property and businesses if their life and property was damaged or threatened, however, NRCS has indicated to him that this is not the case.

Mr. Weidenbach said that’s allowed in the federal program rules, but it has never been done in New York State.

Mr. Marshfield explained that he was in hopes that some of Hamden’s businesses that suffered millions of dollars in damage could use some of this funding to alleviate the next event.

Mr. Weidenbach said the businesses could become eligible if the town agrees to be the sponsor. Mr. Marshfield asked if the businesses could pay their 25 percent. Mr. Weidenbach said the businesses would have to be sponsored, therefore, the town of Hamden would have to pay the 25 percent.

Mr. Bachler said that when Congresswoman Gillibrand visited she talked about changing some of the rules so that the county could take advantage of this funding. He commented that one of the projects the town of Meredith looked at is a farm that is in danger.

Ms. Molé offered the following resolution and moved its adoption:

In answer to Mr. Marshfield, Mr. Utter said that once the project is completed the property will go back to the owner.

Commissioner of Public Works Wayne Reynolds explained in response to Mr. Marshfield since this is a federal aid project the financial compensation paid to the owners must be done by a licensed appraiser. Included in the financial compensation are damages to whatever was impacted by the project such as, trees, shrubs or fences.

Mr. Utter offered the following the resolution and moved its adoption:

RESOLUTION NO. 59

TITLE: AUTHORIZATION TO ENTER INTO AGREEMENT WITH THE TOWN OF COLCHESTER FOR THE TAKE OVER OF A NEW BRIDGE DEPARTMENT OF PUBLIC WORKS

WHEREAS, the town of Colchester has suffered significant damage to Chiloway Road as a result of scour from the Beaverkill River during the federally declared events of January 19, 1996, November 9, 1996, September 18, 2004, April 2, 2005, June 26, 2006 and November 16, 2006; and

WHEREAS, the town has already undertaken one major construction project in the winter of 2004/2005 using Federal funding in an attempt to stabilize the road and make it safe for the traveling public; and

WHEREAS, the stabilized section was re-damaged in the April 2005 event and further damaged by subsequent events which have dramatically increased the magnitude of the road failure; and

WHEREAS, Chiloway Road is the sole access point for approximately 6 full time residences and 20 seasonal residences; and

WHEREAS, the town of Colchester retained a consulting engineering firm in 2005 to evaluate feasible alternatives to the repair of the existing roadway to ensure safe, efficient access to the affected landowners; and

WHEREAS, the feasibility study included the options of: repair of existing roadway slope, relocation of the roadway to the south and further away from the river, construction of a new road on new location in the town of Hancock, and finally the construction of a new bridge across the Beaverkill River west of the slope failure; and

WHEREAS, the two best alternatives were the bridge and the new road in the town of Hancock; and

WHEREAS, the new road would have to be owned and maintained by the town of Hancock, which is unacceptable to the town of Hancock
NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED that the Chairman of the Board is herewith authorized to enter into an agreement with the town of Colchester accepting the bridge as a county bridge after the Town has constructed it in accordance with the Department of Public Works Bridge Standards at town of Colchester expense.

The resolution was seconded by Mr. Bachler.

Mr. Utter commented that building a bridge across the Beaverkill seems to be to the only solution to this problem. The construction of the bridge will be funded by FEMA and SEMO and there will be no cost to the town of Colchester or the county.

Mr. Homovich said there would be a cost to the town of Colchester. He pointed out that the town of Colchester will need to borrow $4.5 million dollars and anything extra incurred by the county over this amount will be paid by the town. The town of Colchester already has $900,000 in this section of the road and the next flood will create new damage. He explained that the rock ledge is so close to the river that it is impossible to get a good slope to hold. Several options were considered, but none have proven suitable. The town of Colchester is legally bound to keep this section of the road accessible. In addition to the $4.5 million, there will be a cost of approximately $600,000 to stabilize a one lane road while the bridge is under construction. This new bridge will make three bridges within about a half mile distance.

In answer to Chairman Eisel, Mr. Utter said that the bridge will span 300 feet.

Mr. Utter advised that DPW is in receipt of the resolution passed by the Colchester Town Board asking the county to build this bridge. He explained there will be three bridges because the State Office of Historical Preservation (SHPO) felt that the old bridge which was replaced by a new bridge above it had to remain and be maintained as part of the town’s history. He recommended the passage of this resolution.

Mr. Marshfield said it is too bad it has to come to this because we do not need any more bridges. He said it is not uncommon to have a town support a road where the tax revenue comes from a different town. He questioned why there was not more cooperation from the town of Hancock in trying to get a road over land which was one of the options.

In answer to Mr. Marshfield, Mr. Homovich said he was not certain when the railroad was built, but the town of Colchester took the road over about 1953. The road is owned by the town of Colchester and for the next three years while the bridge is being built the town will be responsible to keep the road stabilized and provide emergency work. In his opinion, this is a waste of taxpayers money when the problem could be fixed for less than $500,000.

The total cost to build the bridge could be around $5 million. He said the town of Colchester has already spent $200,000 plus of their taxpayers money already to keep the road stabilized. By the time the project is completed the town will have between five to six hundred thousand dollars of their own taxpayers money into this project. The town of Colchester can’t afford this.

In reply to Mr. Marshfield, Commissioner Reynolds said this will be a fifty year bridge which will most likely serve seventy years. Maintenance for the first five to seven years should be less than $5,000 a year to keep the bridge washed and cleaned. The deck will need to be replaced in about forty-five years. This will be a high profile bridge because the bridge is located on the Beaverkill and there are a number of inspectors that will keep an eye on it.

Commissioner Reynolds said the town of Colchester has gone above and beyond in its search for alternatives. The town has respected DPW’s desire to consider building a bridge only as a last resort.

Mr. Smith questioned how a road was provided to the residents when the railroad was there. Mr. Homovich thought there was a path besides the railroad track that was used as a road. Then below the town line a subdivision was put in. This subdivision is not a good one and it makes a strong point for regulations and planning of subdivisions.

Commissioner Reynolds added that it really could not be called a road, it is more like a goat path which was used in horse and buggy days, but to the best of his understanding was the access road prior to the railroad coming in.

Mr. Rowe said the subdivision was put in when his mother was the town of Hancock’s Supervisor before she put in the moratorium on roads and subdivisions. There are five subdivisions built on a side hill with nothing but glorified goat paths for roads. He said he has seen better snowmobile trails.

Initially, he went to the meetings with the town of Colchester as a team player, saying he would do whatever he could to help reduce the cost and do the right thing. One meeting in early summer the group took four wheel drive vehicles to the subdivision. In his opinion, there is no way this road could be made wide enough to be a town road.

He said he feels terrible about this situation, but, he is only one person. He brought the information back to the Hancock Town Board and it was decided that they did not want to take on another town road. He said that upon review of the subdivision plans it was felt that the roads were to be abandoned by the town once they were done with them. He did not recall any talk of the town of Hancock taking them over. He offered to present this information to the town of Hancock Board again if there is time.

Mr. Rowe stated that the $500,000 Mr. Homovich is talking about is just the section of the road from Bessy Road to connect into the subdivision. A little piece of road to connect the town of Hancock with the existing subdivision. The town of Hancock would own that road. The people who are on the bottom side and live on Chiloway Road are full time residents owning $500,000 homes. These people would have to drive through the private subdivision to get up to the Hancock town road in order to get out of there.

Mr. Homovich commented it would still be cheaper to condemn the back side. Mr. Rowe said he never saw that as an option, adding you can't just condemn homes.

Mr. Marshfield asked if FEMA would agree to pay for the 1,500 feet plus update the subdivision road. Mr. Rowe said he feels the Board is thinking there will be a brand new road from one side to the other side. He urged them to remember that there would be 1,500 feet of new road and then it goes into a tiny little goat path. It would be impossible to provide emergency services to the full time people that live there.

Mr. Hynes asked if the bridge would solve the problem. Mr. Rowe replied that he thinks the bridge would tie them into the spot below the failure, but added he has not seen the map in a long time and he is not sure in his own mind where the bridge goes in. Mr. Homovich said it would be just over the town line below the damaged area.

Mr. Hynes asked if the bridge is going to be a county bridge in the end, why doesn’t the county get involved right now. Commissioner Reynolds explained the owner at this time is the town of Colchester and they have to come up with solutions in accordance with FEMA regulations. In the past the county has taken over numerous structures post flood events and on each of them the county was involved in the design standards as an oversight. There were no county dollars involved in the initial construction.

The resolution was adopted by the following vote: Ayes 3654, Noes 128 (Marshfield), Absent 1024 (Donnelly, Valente, Maddalone).

Ms. Molé offered the following resolution and moved its adoption:

Chairman Eisel stated that he has established a Records Management Committee to evaluate the county’s needs for record storage space. The committee will do a survey of the storage requirements within the county and report back to the Board with their findings in May.

Chairman Eisel appointed the following people to the Records Management Committee:
Sharon O’Dell, County Clerk
Nicole Franzese, Planning Director
William Moon, Commissioner of Social Services

Chairman Eisel reminded the Supervisors to complete the ballot they received from the Coalition of Watershed Towns (CWT). The first three names on the regular list are Mr. Utter, Mr. Meredith and Mr. Bachler, and Mr. Bracci as the alternate. He pointed out that in error Mr. Haynes’ name is on the ballot as both a regular and as an alternate. He advised that Mr. Haynes would be unable to serve on CWT due to the fact that the meeting dates are in conflict with the town of Kortright Board meetings.

Mr. Hynes announced that there will be a ribbon cutting celebrating the purchase of the new bus for the Office of the Aging sometime in March.

Upon a motion, the meeting was adjourned at 2:25 P.M.
